The Irony of Ironies

As I was speaking recently at major engagement to an audience of highly informed individuals, it occurred to my spirit, what an irony this is. These individuals are overly informed as to their intellectual understanding of all the teachings about prosperity and success. They have read all the books. They have seen all the superstars, from Deepak Chopra, Dr. Wayne W. Dyer, and Marianne Williamson to name just a few. They have all the latest New Age DVD's, and yet they were as a group, depressed, lost, befuddled.

You can play and pretend to be something you're not for a long time before someone throws the script of life/reality before you and expects you to perform accordingly. I knew that the audience was bewildered and I was moved in the spirit to speak. Changing the course of my lecture, I began to say: "You do not need to read the want ads anymore to find a new job. It just is not listed there anymore. You will not find it in newspaper." At this point everyone listened up. I explained that we may not, and should not listen to the dismal attitude of the media either. They have no plan for the economy that includes a spiritual dimension, therefore how can it work.

I explained that the reason our next job was not in the newspaper is because we have to grow up now. We have to manifest our own job now through the spiritual principles we have been studying all these years. We cannot listen to the media when they say there will never be peace in the Middle East, or that lack and starvation is inevitable. We have to visualize the Middle East as being peaceful. We have to feel Americans bouncing back to a strong economy based on new principles. We are the co-creators of reality with the divine.

The Coming of Age

It is taught by the Masters of Wisdom that in ancient times before history, humanity was led by higher beings. In our language you could call these higher beings angels, archangels, and archai. These higher beings walked the earth in human form for the sake of all humanity. They were gods and are gods. One example are the original god king pharaohs of prehistoric Egypt. Through eugenics, these higher beings develop races of humanity that could walk upright. Through eugenics they developed a ruling class in every society. The Levites were the priesthood of Israel. The Brahmins were the ruling class/priesthood of ancient India. Within these ruling classes, there was an inner circle of human initiates who were bred in higher consciousness and knowledge that the masses did not have direct access to. They were usually within the royal family of each culture like the more recent Pharaohs of Egypt who were then human initiates of higher consciousness. They had a spiritual access to the great I Am that the masses did not. The masses still lived in the "we-ism" of the time, only the Pharaoh King, Queen, High Priest/Priestess, or royal family had the "I" within them. This is why you do not see personal horoscopes develop until the middle of the Roman Empire. By then, the decent of the "I" of the human ego had descended into all of humanity. Thus, everyone then had a self-interest rather than living as an extension of the ruler.

As time went by the gods backed away and left the initiate human kings and queens in charge. Later on, the initiates themselves backed away from the ruling classes including the priesthoods and allowed humanity to rule itself while under the inspiration of the initiates, secret brotherhoods, and the Masters of Wisdom. Every nation still has secret brotherhoods within them. However, times have changed. Since the time of the French Revolution (1789), humanity has been progressively trying to rule itself worldwide. This has led to the dilemma we are facing today worldwide. Yet it was part of the divine plan to cut us loose from the apron strings of these advance beings for our mutual evolution.

The Minor Kali Yuga Ends

A Yuga is a Sanskrit term for a period of time, like an age. Each age is ruled by a spiritual being known as an Archai or Time Spirit. The term Kali is Sanskrit for dark or black. Thus the Kali Yuga is the Dark Age that Krishna warned us about in the Bhagavad-Gita. This minor Kali Yuga began around Feb. 18, 3102 BC with Krishna's death. It ended around 1898 AD. It is interesting that at the end of Kali Yuga, materialistic science was in battle against spiritualism, mysticism, and occultism. Materialistic science at that time believed that only the physical universe existed and that it had always existed. They believed that there was no such thing as a creation and that physical matter had always existed in some form or another. Of course, we laugh at that now since the echo of the Big Bang has been discovered and measured. It is also a fantastic irony that it was Father Georges-Henri Lemaitre, a Catholic Priest and cosmologist who first proposed the Big Bang expanding universe theory around 1927, a theory even Einstein did not like. Father Lemaitre suggested that the whole universe expanded from a Primeval Atom. This atom is now believed to have been  $10^{-33}$  of a centimeter in size!

As we come upon 2012, and all the predictions that go with it, even the skeptics sense a great shift is now taking place in humanity. All the stops have been pulled out. The History Channel always has an Armageddon type scenario about 2012, Nostradamus, and or the Anti-Christ, or some other end time scenario predicted by the Mayan or the Hopi Indians (Native Americans). What is at the core of all this hoopla?

The Big Apple

No, I am not talking about New York City, though it is certainly involved when I mention the big apple. The big apple is the self-awareness and knowledge we have developed since the birth of our human ego. Our eyes are now open and we see ourselves naked before the light of truth. This is because we chose to grow, to be what we are intended to be. This choice behooves the biting of the big apple. This symbolically means, we decided to become, we decided we wanted to be creators. We are co-creators of reality with God. We are the little baby gods who now have to begin to look after themselves. We have to grow up now. We have to visualize what we want to create.

We all have heard about ancient Atlantis. We are the Atlanteans who destroyed this Earth a million years ago with our misuse of spiritual power. The Atlanteans were able to harness the life force itself, and project it anywhere for multiple purposes. Then they turned upon each other through ignorance and through us back in our technological evolution eons. We are now again becoming aware of another force as human race. This force is the power of intention. With our intention we can wield a spiritual energy trillions of times more powerful than any energy we have ever accessed before. This is sometimes called "Zero-Point" energy. I have written on this subject before and will not go into it here. So here is the bottom line.

The Bottom Line

We are the cause of all of our world problems because we co-created them collectively with the power of intention. The gods and the initiates have stepped back to see what we will do. They cannot directly interfere any more and have removed many of the training wheels or protective stops from humanities thought power. We must now be careful what we think, feel, or will, or we will see consequences we may not want.

We have to grow up now. The time between our intention and desire and its manifestation in our life is faster every day. Either we will create consciously a world of peace and love, or we will create unconsciously a world of lack, confusion, and despair. Some of us are acutely aware of this phenomenon, and others or not quite there yet. Whether we like it or not, we are co-creators of reality here on Earth. As I demonstrated in my last newsletter, we can do it. It only takes a hand fold of solid meditators to influence the masses for the good of all. Please take the time to do so. Since there is at the highest level of reality, only One

Presence, the lives you save will be your own.
Namaste.
