

Blavatsky, Helena Petrovna (1831-1891) by Brian Piccolo © 2008

An amazing woman was born into our world in 1831. She was expected by the Eastern Masters of Wisdom who were looking for an instrument at that time to communicate to the rest of humanity with. Her name was Helena Petrovna Blavatsky (HPB).

Being of Russian descent, the frontal lobes of her brain were similar to the frontal lobes of humanity before the 1300's. This meant that for her, that she could perceive the spiritual astral-etheric realms in the very same way we perceive sense impressions with our eyes and ears. She was a positive medium which means she was self-aware and awake during her communications with the higher supersensory realms of existence. Negative mediums are unconscious during their communications with higher beings who use their bodies as instruments. HPB also had another attribute, total recall of all that she perceived in the higher realms.

The first brotherhoods to contact her were the Egyptian and the Europeans. They were using her see into the higher realms for them. Many of the brotherhoods no longer had their own clairvoyant sight because the minor Kali Yuga (Dark Age) had not yet ended. Had they known that HPB had total recall they would have never allowed her to know their secrets. By the time they realized this, it was too late, HPB had already seen more than they could. This would later put an enmity between HPB and these brotherhoods.

However, HPB's greatest adversary was an American brotherhood who warned HPB not to teach reincarnation in America. Using a ceremonial magic ritual, they put HPB into a type of spiritual prison. This prison was of such a nature that she could only see into the spiritual worlds in a totally subjective way. She could not see beyond herself.

It was at this point that the Eastern Himalaya Masters entered her life and decided to free her from this prison. HPB was in London at the time when she first saw her Master M. She recognized him from the many dreams she had about him during her life. He was in a parade at the time and could not talk to her.

In the past, HPB had fought in war, was shot in the shoulder, stabbed, and left for dead. She proudly carried the irremovable slug in her shoulder all her life. She was a Russian aristocrat, very feminist in her independence, and highly educated. Thus, several days after the parade while sitting in a park, her very tall Master M approached her. He explained to her all the lifetimes they had spent together, and gave her a choice in this lifetime. She could either serve the Eastern Brotherhood or become a concert pianist (she was a great pianist). She chose to serve the Masters.

HPB was taken to Tibet for seven years and educated into some of the highest mysteries. The masters were concerned that Western culture was at a crucial turning point and needed to be stirred away from crass materialism. With the founding of the Theosophical Society, and the two metaphysical publications

Isis Unveiled, and The Secret Doctrine, a foundation was created to offset this. HPB was capable of simple spiritual phenomena such as the duplication of small objects like mirrors. She wrote The Secret Doctrine without ever leaving her apartment. She never visited a library to check her references. She could search the reference volumes on the astral plane without leaving her desk.

Because of HPB and the Theosophical Society, we have Rudolph Steiner and the Anthroposophical movement, the founders of the Golden Dawn and Alistair Crowley, Moira and S. L. MacGregor Mathers, and the Kabbalah movement, Jiddu Krishnamurti, A. E. Waite and the Ryder Tarot deck, Alice Bailey and Lucifer publishing. These are just a few of the people who came out of this spiritual revival of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. All of these movements lead to another generation of New Age thinkers such as David Spangler in the 1970's which lead to the Harmonic Conversion movements of the late 1980's.

Helena Petrovna Blavatsky leaves us with a legacy of knowledge about the constitution of humanity and the true spiritual cosmology of existence. Till she came, all these teachings had been suppressed for several millennia from public view. As I lecture at various places, I see more and more a thirst for understanding and greater detail, about the etheric body, the astral body, the Higher Self, and more. The time of lite weight superficial understanding has now passed. It has now been over 100 years since the ending of the minor Kali Yuga in 1898, and the 1888 version of The Secret Doctrine.

When Helena Petrovna Blavatsky passed away, the Eastern Masters seemed to have backed away from direct outward intervention with humanity. Instead, perhaps, they knew that the time had come when we must each interact with our own Higher Self, our own true inner Guru and Teacher. The old adage of the Masters plainly states, "When the students are ready, the teachers will appear." Because of HPB, and to those whom she gave spiritual birth, are we not now ready to receive and grow? Many are called, but few are chosen. HPB was one of the chosen. Deep in your heart, can you now hear the call? Thank you Helena Petrovna Blavatsky for your sacrifice and loyalty to the truth. "There is no religion, philosophy, or science, higher than truth."
